If approaching the Mayhem Southeast site from the M2 take the A2 towards Canterbury, after approximately 4 miles you will see a Little Chef & Garage on your left. At the garage exit there is a slip road, take the slip road and continue for 300 metres, there you will find the entrance to the site on your left hand side.

WARNING! The slip road is immediately next to the garage exit, if you should miss it there is another slip road a short distance along the A2. If you should use this exit, take the first left, follow the bend and the site is on your right.

If you are approaching from Canterbury, take the turning for Upper Harbledown. Follow this road past Garden Centre (on your left), take the next right and you will find the site entrance on your right.
